A CARD .- As I have been repeatedly asked by my fellow-citizens, since the late decision of the City Council, declaring the seat recently held by me, vacant, in consequence of some slight error unintentionally committed by the Commissioners of Election, at the time I was thosen, whether or not I intended to become a candidate again, I have thought it but just to myself, and respectful to those who desired me elected, to state, that I did not desire the situation beither was I aware of my nomination or election till after it was over, as I was absent from the city at the time; but it seems that my friends took the matter into their own hands then, and they are at liberty to do the same thing now, and I shall be perfectly satisfied with

oct 8-1t JAMES S. HALLOWELL. We are happy to see that REUDEN JOHN-Mox. esq, is to be a candidate for the Board of Aldermen, from the Fourth Ward, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of their late worthy representative in that branch of the Cny Council, T. B. Robertson, esq. It is not probable that Mr. Johnston will have any oppo sition, as the voters in that ward appear to be well pleased with his nomination There is no necessity for any party nomination, as we want in our Council, men best acquainted with the affairs of the city, and best capable of conducting them aright Let Mr. Johnston have a

An immense number of persons were in attendance on last Monday and Tuesday to witness the trial, and much interest manifested.

The Ladies of Washington, Rapppahannock, realized by their Fair on Monday and Tuesday, between $80 and $100. It was well gotten up. Many of the articles for sale betokened genius and exquisite taste on the part of the Ladies of that place and neighborhood. We are sorry to say that they were not as well patronized as they deserved to be, especially by their own citizens. We had the pleasure of attending the Fair on Monday night, where we met with many whose sweet smiles and charming faces we shall not soon forget .- War- county, and not in Culpeper as reported.

SHOOTING SCRAPE -On Tuesday night last a shooting scrape occurred at the office of Mr. E H. Stokes, corner of Locust Alley and Franklin street, which came nigh proving fatal. Mr. Albert Pulliam of this city, and Mr. Houston Rucker of Lynchburg, in attempting to settle some business transaction got into an altercation at the office of Pulliam & Betts, but no blows passed between them. They then walked over to Mr. Stekes', and as soon as they entered the door a scuffle enfired twice on Mr. Pulliam, the first ball taking effect on the right side of the abdomen, just below the ribs, and the second one missing. Mr. Rucker immediately left the premises. Mr. Pulliam's triends then examined en a portion of his shirt into his flesh, which on being pulled out, brought the ball with it. Fortunately for Mr. P. the pistol used against him was a small one, and badly loaded, or he be is not considered to be in any danger, and Baltimore Turnpike Road has been sold to would have received a fatal wound.
